BBMP floats tender inviting bids from private entities to check illegal flexes, hoardings & banners

FLEX AND THE CITY

Outsourcing undoable task or waste of taxpayers' money?

After failing to check the issue of illegal flexes, the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike is now planning to outsource the work to private players and has floated a tender inviting bids for the removal of illegal flexes in the city.

Illegal flexes, despite multiple complaints filed with the BBMP and orders of the High Court, continue to deface the city.

On Thursday, the Shanthi Nagar division floated a tender inviting bids 'from an individual, a proprietor, a partnership firm, a public or private limited company incorporated under the provisions of the Indian Companies Act, 1956 or a consortium of companies' to provide the services for the removal of unauthorised/illegal advertisements including any form of display in the BBMP Advertisement Bylaws 2006 like

Doctors say avoid street food as temperatures soar & summer approaches

People often suffer from food poisoning in this hot weather due to consuming unhygienic food and beverages, say health experts

With temperatures soaring close to 31 degrees Celsius, doctors in the city are urging people to avoid street food and takeaway meals, and be mindful of contaminated water as summer approaches.

They say street foods and foods from roadside vendors are often prepared in unhygienic conditions and can be contaminated with harmful bacteria.

"In most cases, people suffer from food poisoning during summer due to either contamination of water or it is due to the contamination of food by bacteria overgrowth. People should avoid all street food like bhel puri, pani puri, etc., as we are unaware of the quality of water used to make them. We are also unaware of the kind of water used to wash the plates which can cause contamination," said Dr Sanjiv Rao, Manipal Hospital.

According to healthcare experts, it is important to follow safe food handling and preparation practices, such as washing hands, cooking, and storing food at safe temperatures too.

"Being cautious and practicing good food handling and preparation practices can reduce the risk of food-related illnesses during the summer. people must also avoid consuming preserved meat and other nonvegetarian items because these products decompose when exposed to heat and there is a risk of it getting contaminated by staphylococcus bacteria which can cause food poisoning. If not treated early, it may turn into acute gastroenteritis," said Dr Harish KS, Aster RV Hospital.

According to a recent study, food-borne illness is a significant public health problem in India, with an estimated 150 million cases of foodborne illnesses each year.

The study reported that bacterial pathogens such as Salmonella, Staphylococcus aureus, and Escherichia coli (E coli) were among India's most common causes of food poisoning.

Hospitals say the incidence of food poisoning can vary greatly depending on various factors, such as geographic location, food safety regulations, hygiene practices, and individual susceptibility.

People with food poisoning walk in with symptoms such as nausea, vomiting, abdominal cramps, loose stools, and fever.

"The symptoms of a simple toxic mediate illness, such as severe stomach pain, vomiting, and watering eyes, typically appear 6 hours after eating. However, everyone who consumes the meal will have these symptoms. Therefore, by asking people questions and attempting to ascertain the most popular foods they consume, we can determine which foods are contaminated," said Dr Subramanian Swaminathan, BGS Gleneagles Global Hospital.

If you have to eat out, stick to larger establishments that have credibility in terms of providing good food, say the experts. However, this is an area where the government could pay more attention to and improve the safety of food-handling establishments in the city and across the country.

Vijay Karnataka and Bangalore Mirror felicitated its women newspaper vendors as an appreciation for their commendable service on the occasion of the 'VK Sthree Sambhrama'. BMTC Managing Director G Satyavathy, founder of Adamya Chetana Tejaswini Ananthakumar, member of Legislative Council Dr TA Saravan, writer Aarti HN, Vijay Karnataka Editor Sudarshan Channangihalli and VK RMD Head Arul Dass Suresh were present.

Dignitaries on the dais at the event

Girl power and candid talks

It was a Saturday to remember for the many Bengalureans who attended the VK Sthree Sambhrama organised by Vijay Karnataka at Kuvempu Kalakshetra.

The event traditionally began with folk arts, followed by a formal inauguration. BMTC Managing Director Sathyavati G said at the inauguration that she owed her success to her father who encouraged her to study. She was an IIAS officer because of his unconditional support.

The topic of women empowerment was the highlight and MLC TA Saravana said, "I congratulate VK for organising socially conscious programmes like Kannada Habba, Super Star Raitha and now VK Sthree Sambhrama."

Women should speak about the problems they are facing and only then will they be resolved.

Women artistes perform folk numbers at the event

As it is important to teach women about good and bad touch, we also need to educate boys, litterateur HN Arati said.

Actress Amruta Iyengar said, "I thank the governments for taking up the debate on providing menstrual leave. For me, my mother is the biggest inspiration."

VK editor Sudarshan Channangihalli said that the event was organised to encourage the hidden potential of women.

The audience was engaged all day. The cuisine contest was a big hit among the groups as many women teams had turned up with their favourite dishes.

Chief Guest Parimala Jaggesh said that she was happy to see so many displaying their food items while Indushree had the audience in splits with her comic training. The ventriloquist had the audience spellbound.

Savitakka, a household name in singing folk songs, enthralled the audience with her voice. Another highlight of the programme was the Gulabi Gang played by the Rangapayana team.

In matters of health, many women had a lot of questions for Dr Sharada. Aditi Prabhudeva had an engaging evening as the audience had a nice chit chat with her on various topics.

The Seere Sadagara was another unique programme where women turned up in huge numbers.

The day ended with talented singers Pruthvi Bhat and Ankita Kundu singing popular numbers.

Last-mile move to bring smiles

BMTC floats tender for procurement of 20 mini e-buses to combat last-mile connectivity

City dwellers will soon be able to depend on Bengaluru Metropolitan Transport Corporation (BMTC) buses for meeting their last-mile connectivity woes. BMTC had floated a tender for the procurement of 20 mini e-buses to be run on a pilot basis.

Providing last-mile connectivity to commuters, BMTC had decided to run mini buses in the city. They have issued the tender for the supply of 20 buses and 5 chargers. The bidder will also be responsible for the maintenance of the buses and chargers.

The transport body is looking for non-AC mini electric buses that are about 6-7m in length. The buses will be able to run for 150 km daily at an 80 per cent charge for the first five years. They should be charged within an hour and the battery consumption should be less than 0.8 kWh/km.

The low floor ratio of the bus should not be more than 50 per cent of the total salon area and the maximum bus floor height should be 400-650 mm. The prototype will have to be delivered to BMTC within 90 days from manufacture and the remaining 19 are to be delivered within 180 days.

According to BMTC officials, these buses will run on narrower roads and metro routes. "These buses will have a seating capacity of 15. They will run on narrower roads, meeting last-mile connectivity and metro-feeder services. They will be especially helpful in areas where bigger buses cannot navigate. These buses will be run on a pilot basis," informed a BMTC official.

> "It was a long-term demand that BMTC roll out these mini buses. They can get into narrower streets and make more trips

However, the body has not decided the exact routes for the buses yet. Previously, they had announced 100 mini e-buses for metro-feeder routes.

Mobility experts feel that the move will help a lot of citizens. "It was a long-term demand that BMTC roll out these mini buses. They can get into narrower streets and make more trips for shorter distances. Right now, there is going to be a gap between Byappanahalli and KR Puram and such buses can help wedge that gap by running every two minutes.

Buses going through local and crowded routes can bring down the number of vehicles on the road," said Srinivas Allavilli, a bus activist. Frequent bus services can stop people from using private vehicles. With work on the suburban train in progress, the routes have to be repurposed to suit a multi-modal transport system, he said.

This move, he explained, will help BMTC understand the travel pattern of commuters and they can experiment with routes.

With the ability to run long distances, each bus will be able to make frequent trips with a single charge. Additionally, commuters will have the chance to make a difference and reduce air pollution, Allavilli added.

Man assaults wife over dowry

A man is reported to have assaulted his wife because her father did not give him a watch.

The allegation has been made about Wazir Ahmed, a resident of RT Nagar. Wazir punched his wife in the face for not bringing him a watch from her father, informed police officials.

Wazir had married the victim three years ago. He had cheated his way into the marriage, saying that he would get a job in Dubai. After the marriage, he did not get a job. In the meantime, he was demanding a watch, money, and dowry from his wife. The man has been married four or five times in the past, something the victim was not aware of.

The victim said that he had assaulted her and thrown her out of the house.

A complaint has been registered by the victim against Wazir and his family members at RT Nagar Police Station.

Woman falls to death after 'fight' with partner

A flight attendant who had come to Bengaluru from Dubai to see her partner died after falling from an apartment. The deceased has been identified as Archana Dhiman.

She hailed from Himachal Pradesh and fell in love with a Kerala-based Techie, Adesh, whom she met through a dating app a few years ago. Adesh was working in a private company in the city.

According to the police, Archana had recently come to Koramangala to visit him. It is suspected that an argument broke out between the two and she was pushed from the balcony. Koramangala police are currently checking CCTV footage. They said that Archana fell from the fourth floor of a building in Koramangala.

The incident took place around midnight on Friday. There was reportedly a party going on at their house. Sources said that there was an altercation between them, after which Archana allegedly ended her life. On the other hand, it is also speculated that Adesh may have pushed her.

Security guard arrested for robbing home

On Saturday, nine members of a gang who were accused of breaking into a south Bengaluru home on February 28 and stealing 1.9 kg of gold worth Rs 90 lakh and a weapon were arrested. A security guard and his wife who stayed on the property are among the arrested.

An architect, Kiran PB, had his home broken into. He was the only one at home at the time of the robbery as his family members were on a trip. He went to check on Prem, the security guard, but he was not there and neither was his wife.

Police subsequently arrested Prem, Netra Shahi, Lakshmi Sejuwal, Gorak Bahadur, Bheem Bahadur, Anjali, Abesh Shahi, Prashant, and Prakash.

1 kg and 173 gm of gold, 350 gm of silver, Rs 77.69 lakh in cash, a pistol, and three bullets were recovered from the arrested.

In a separate case, police have arrested six people for stealing from the house of an elderly woman. The main accused, Vimala, was working for Brij Bhushan, the owner of the house.

B-luru's voting pattern cause of EC's concerns

Youngsters are especially apathetic, Chief Election Commissioner Rajiv Kumar says

File photo of voters turning up in small numbers in Ullal and RR Nagar for bypolls held in the city; EC is focused on urban apathy about voting

Total polling stations in Karnataka - 58,282
Urban polling stations - 24,063
Women-managed polling stations - 1,320
PWD-managed - 224
Average voter per polling station - 883
Model polling station - 240
Critical stations - 1,200

How to make Bengalureans vote? This seems to be a big question troubling the Election Commission (EC) as it prepares to hold the assembly elections in the next few months. The EC officials, led by Chief Election Commissioner Rajiv Kumar, have been touring the city and other parts of the state to review the poll preparations. Kumar said, "Urban apathy is a cause of concern, especially in constituencies in India's IT Hub, which is known for the lowest voter turnout in the 2013 and 2018 assembly elections." According to EC statistics, Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) South saw just 51.98 per cent turnout in 2018, BBMP North saw 53.47 per cent, Central, 55.18 per cent, and Bengaluru Urban, 57 per cent last time.

Are youngsters apathetic?

Another area of concern is the apathy of youngsters. Kumar said that their focus has been to connect with them.

First-time voters in Karnataka have risen from 4 lakh during the last term elections to 9.17 lakh now. A 17-year-old can file their applications well in advance. "So far, we have received 1.25 lakh applications for advance registration. 41,432 of those applicants will turn 18 by April 1 and will be eligible to vote for the Karnataka elections. However, the cause of concern is that a section of youngsters are not voting with enthusiasm," he said.

He informed that they conducted a session in the Indian Institute of Science recently to understand the interest of young citizens.

"To address the apathy, we have launched a hackathon (Electhon 2023) to engage professionals with industry knowledge. I would like to encourage everyone to participate in the event," he added.

Vote from home

For the first time in Karnataka, 'super senior citizens' can vote from home. The EC announced that there are 12.15 lakh voters in the age group of 80 and above. 17,000 of them have crossed the 100 year-mark. Along with super senior voters, there are 5.55 lakh voters with disabilities. "We are providing a new facility where super seniors or those with disabilities can vote from home. We will distribute 12 forms five days after the poll notification is announced. Those who avail this facility will find polling officers visiting their homes.

Even political parties will be informed. The whole process at home will be recorded to ensure that there is transparency. If such voters wish to visit the polling booth, we will provide facilities like wheelchairs, pick-up, and drop," said Kumar.

Poll date by month-end?

The EC is likely to announce the polling date by the end of this month or early April. Once the date is announced, the model code of conduct will be in place.

According to data, the term of the Karnataka assembly is until May 24, 2023.

Poll preparations will be planned in such a way that the new assembly is placed by then.

Overall, there are 2.62 crore male voters and 2.59 crore female voters in the state.

Citizens' sinking feeling over Bellandur road

This road in Bellandur is uneven and full of potholes; a sinkhole has also opened up in the middle of the road, troubling commuters

Commuters using the road near Bellandur say that it is in a terrible state. They say that the stretch is filled with sinkholes and potholes, which makes commuting extremely difficult for them.

Arun Anand, one such affected commuter, told Bangalore Mirror, "The road is in a very poor condition. The entire stretch is broken and filled with potholes. This road poses a huge risk to everyone who uses it. We need to follow extreme precautions while navigating this place." The commuters also mentioned that in the centre of the road lies a big sinkhole that makes it all the more dangerous for passers-by. Abhijith Anirudh, another commuter, said, "If the numerous craters were not enough, there is a big sinkhole that has developed right in the middle of this road. The condition of this stretch has been like this for more than three weeks now, and yet, no action has been taken to fix this by authorities concerned. It can cause a lot of problems for all the people who are passing by here."

People in the area are also of the view that the material used for making the road was of poor quality. A commuter who wanted to remain anonymous told BM, "I am certain that the officials use poor quality materials to build these roads, otherwise they would not be caving so quickly. These roads are supposed to last for years, but they crumble in a matter of mere months." They said that there is not even one stretch on this road that is in a good condition. Strict action must be taken against such work, they insisted.

Commuters highlighted more problems they face while driving on this road.

Shivam Kumar, also a commuter, said that people have to be very careful while travelling on this road since it is very uneven. Due to the big sinkhole, the space has been further reduced, and people have to stick to the sides of the road. This, he said, is causing a lot of traffic congestion as well. "It takes a lot of time to cross this stretch, which is frustrating," he added.

A BBMP official said that they would try to work on the road soon.

Life cycle of a kasa kiosk

Garbage collection point set up in Kasavanahalli after three years of efforts by residents is lying dysfunctional for last four months

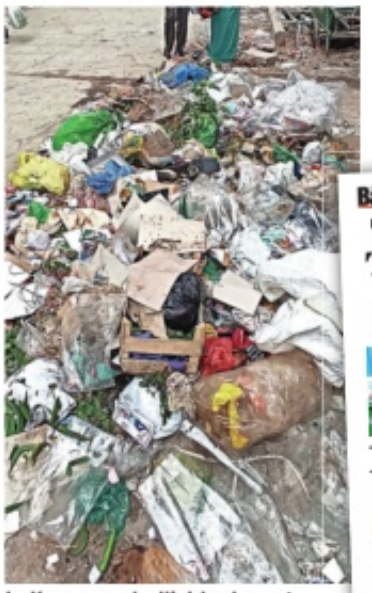
When the residents of Kasavanahalli managed to set up a kasa kiosk, a small garbage collection point, in their neighbourhood after nearly three years of coordinating with the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike, they thought the area would finally be free of all its black spots.

But they were wrong.

The kiosk that was designed by the residents at a budget of nearly Rs 1.5 lakh from CSR funds has been lying dysfunctional for the past four months, and the situation -- black spots that stink and are a ground for infections -- is back to square one.

The BBMP had assured the citizens that they would provide the necessary manpower to run the kiosk. However, the pourakarmikas, the waste collectors, were not deployed at the kiosk. The residents who had initially started using the kiosk are now dumping their garbage next to it as there is no one to collect it.

Valli Sreenivasan, a member of Kasa Muktha Bellandur, an organisation that works towards waste management, clarified that the kiosk was not part of the BBMP's solid waste management (SWM) contract.



In Kasavanahalli, black spots refuse to go away

"It was built with CSR funds to keep a check on the black spots and was handed over to the BBMP for maintenance. The assistant executive engineer, Mamtha, had assured the residents that PKs would be deployed at the kiosk. However, the PKs were not regular, and there was no night shift for them. Hence, the night vendors leave their waste near the kiosk, which makes it another black spot," he said.

BangaloreMirror

Trash in, Trash out

Finally, after years, blackspot gets kiosk to deposit garbage

BM's report on Nov 11, 2022, reported on the kasa kiosk being installed after a long struggle

The failure of the kasa kiosk project highlights the importance of effective collaboration between citizens and the local authorities. While the residents did their part by designing and building the kiosk, they say the BBMP should have been more proactive in maintaining the kiosk and ensuring that it served its purpose.

The residents of Kasavanahalli are now left with a dysfunctional kiosk and a garbage problem that refuses to go away.

Mixed reactions to HC's ruling on boards

The High Court's decision to quash the three circulars that prescribed a board examination for students of classes 5 and 8 in state board schools has evoked mixed reactions from experts, parents, and activists.

While some feel the board examinations would have put pressure on the students, others feel it might create a more systematic academic environment in state schools.

D Shashi Kumar, secretary of the Association of Primary and Secondary Schools of Karnataka, told Bangalore Mirror that the move was essential to improve the learning outcome in state schools.

"There has been a learning gap due to covid and this would have helped in bridging the gap. The court did not consider the larger interest of the students. Many schools have books that are not even on par with the NCERT and they charge Rs 8,000-10,000 for that because there is no law there," he explained.

On the other hand, others feel that implementing board examinations for younger classes is unnecessary.

"What we need in schools is continuous evaluation, not on the basis of academics but also extra-curricular activities, sports, and overall performance," said the child rights activist Advocate Anubha Sahai.

Parents, on the other hand, feel that though the move would have helped in providing a level-playing field, it needs to be implemented through proper planning.

"Many schools do not complete the syllabus and conduct exams based on how much syllabus they have completed for elementary classes but the child is not qualified then. The move would have given a level-playing field for the students," said Shakeel Merchant, a parent and the president of Voice of Parents Association, Karnataka.

However, he pointed out that the move would have violated Section 30 of the RTE Act.

"The government has to look at the larger picture with a bird-eye view and plan properly. Any policy that is being implemented has to be discussed thoroughly and it cannot be a knee-jerk decision such as this one," he added.

Children's education gets a boost with renovated, world-class schools in Shivajinagar

#Bengaluru

Several government schools in Shivajinagar can claim over a century of history. However, for the past few decades, many of these schools were left dilapidated, lacking development and discouraging students from enrolling. The one school that did develop was the IMA run Government VK Obaidullah School, which was wrapped in controversy due to the IMA scam.

But recently, students' hopes across Shivajinagar have been high. The reason? Fast upgradation of many schools in the area, with the addition of sporting facilities and world-class infrastructure.

Foremost among the schools is the BBMP Higher Primary School, Tasker Town. Developed along with Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Ltd (BMRCL), the school is entirely renovated."This school is helping all residents in the area greatly as children can finally go to a nearby educational institution instead of travelling far," said Mudassir Khan, a Tasker Town resident.

At Hafizia BBMP Higher Elementary School and High School, which boasts a 135-year-old history, the work is underway at full speed. The school is being redesigned pro-bono by a firm named EDA, which has expertise in designing schools in over 58 countries. "Hafiziya school will be a model school with state-of-the-art facilities not only for classrooms, library and labs but also for Sports facilities. The school will also have a walking track, an amphitheatre and a ground where women can do yoga classes after school hours," said Rizwan Arshad, MLA, Shivajinagar.

Proposed new building of Hafiziya School

As Shivajinagar lacks public spaces, this school will help not only the kids but also the residents. "It is important that a school have space for students to play. It is heartening to see that even in such a central area, this need is not being ignored," said Naziya Sherif, a parent of a child in 4th grade, who hopes he will study there once it is completed.

The Government Urdu Higher Primary School, popularly known as the Latifiya School, dates back to 1897. Work on adding 6 new classrooms, renovating the old building, and adding more toilets began last year and is progressing quickly. Once completed, the school, which has seen thousands of students pass through over the decades, will also have a revived playground. The school campus will also include the Maulana Azad Model English School.

Another school that was completely dilapidated is the 100-year-old Tamil school. Garbage was dumped in front of the school, the ground was used to divert sewage for years, and anti-social elements had become a big nuisance for the residents around. Over the years, the conditions worsened so that only 12 kids remained enrolled.

The new school building has been designed by Kavitha Shastri from IIID. Work has been taken up as part of CSR projects by construction major L&T after the intervention by MLA Rizwan Arshad, with over Rs. 1 crore being spent on the renovation.

"They are completely renovating the old building, which needed it badly. There will be a new football ground as well for students interested in learning the game. The school's capacity will also be increased so that more students can be enrolled. This is important considering how much the population has grown in the past few years," says Mani S, a resident of Shivajinagar, speaking about the Government Primary Tamil School located nearby.

Work is also ongoing at other schools in the area. In MRS Palya, 2 schools-- a Kannada and Telugu School is being upgraded with 2 extra classrooms that are already constructed. Additional 2 more classrooms are being added. Black Cherry school in MRS Palya also has 2 new classrooms.

At the BBMP Jayamahal Girls High School, a total of Rs. 3.5 crore has been earmarked for a new building, work on which will start soon. In Bharathinagar, Cooks road will have a nursery, while the Al Ameen School near the Kambal Posh Dargah has also been given a facelift.

The VK Obedulla school in Shivajinagar now has a Girls PU College as many girls kept dropping out because of distance issues, and the Kalyani School in Sampangiramnagar will soon have 6 more classrooms. "Students deserve the best regardless of whether enrolled in a private school or one run by the government. I want to work with all stakeholders to get a better curriculum in place at these schools. Shivajinagar must become a hub for education, and I will make sure the children studying in these schools have world-class facilities," said Rizwan Arshad, MLA, Shivajinagar.

Bengalureans complain of places turning into dump sites; breathing issues, insect infestation, and improper sewage management remain major concerns

The residents of the city are upset over garbage being strewn in the major parts of Bengaluru. They say that the bus stands and footpaths are meant to ease the commute for people, hence it is important to keep them clean.

According to them, places like the bus stands in the city are filled with garbage and sewage, making it very difficult for the people to use them.

Ashish K, a commuter, said, "The condition of the bus stop at Tin Factory is deplorable. It is completely filled with garbage, plastic wrappers, and bottles. Even the sewage water from the nearby drainage also gets mixed, making the place extremely unhygienic and dirty."

Other commuters added that the bus stop has been considered as a dump site.

Adithyan Babu, another commuter, told Bangalore Mirror that the bus stand is in a very bad shape.

"It is quite a busy bus stand and a lot of people use it on a regular basis. Despite that, it is in such a terrible condition. Since the place already looks dirty, people think it is okay to throw more garbage there. Because of the accumulation of all the garbage and filthy water, the place emanates a stench," he said.

It is even attracting a lot of insects and flies which causes a great deal of inconvenience to all the people who use the bus stand for their daily commute, he added.

The residents staying in the HSR Layout are also upset with the garbage menace. They say that the meshes placed around saplings to protect the trees are being used as garbage bins.

Harish Kumar, a resident of the area, said, "In this area, to protect the saplings, protective meshes have been placed around them. However, some people have now mistaken these as dustbins, and they are throwing all sorts of waste inside the meshes. If this kind of behaviour continues, the saplings will soon die."

Further, the residents said that a lot of people passing by often spit on the meshes.

"The people have now developed the bad habit of spitting on the meshes. If this is continuing, then it will be very difficult to keep the saplings alive. The people should be responsible enough to avoid such behaviours that will ultimately cause harm to them," another resident informed anonymously.

Some of the people living in Hesaraghatta are also dealing with the same problem.

"The road leading to Acharya College is filled with garbage on both sides. This has attracted a lot of dogs and insects in the area. Sometimes, the people will also be burning the garbage here which causes a lot of smoke and causes health problems among the residents," said Ayush Narayanan, a resident.

Meanwhile, a Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) official said they would look into the matter and take necessary steps.

This is the season of sporting events in the state as many are organising cricket, volleyball or kabbadi tourneys. The hilly district of Kodagu is not behind. The district is now gearing up to host a hockey tourney. This event not only draws crowds from Kodagu but from across the state and country.

Interestingly, the hockey festival in Kodagu district seems to be bigger this time, as a record, 336 teams (families) are set to participate.

The 23rd edition of the tournament will begin at General Thimmaiah Stadium at Napoklu (Kodagu district) from March 18 onwards.

During the previous edition, 334 teams had participated, and this year, it is a new record. This tourney has a long history of camaraderie. The Kodava hockey tourney was started way back in 1997 with 60 families participating. The numbers have been rising since then. This tourney has already made a mark in the Book of Records for having the maximum teams participating in a sporting event. However, there was a gap since 2018 for various reasons and now this tournament is set to begin next week.

Kodava Hockey Academy Vice President Kukkera Jaya Chinnappa said that CM Basavaraj Bommai will be inaugurating the tourney.

"So far, 336 teams have registered and all the teams were busy practicing for the tourney," he said.

The estimated expenses of the tournament is said to be in the range of Rs 1.5 crore to Rs 2 crore.

The last time the tourney was held was in 2018 and since then there has been a long gap due to floods and then later outbreak of covid.

In fact, the event is hosted by a Kodava family and the 23rd edition is hosted by Appachattolanda family this year. The 23-day event will conclude on April 10. The first exhibition match will be played between the national junior hockey team and Karnataka 11 team and the second match will be played between the Coorg Regiment team and the Coorg 11 team.

More than 5,000 players are expected to take part in this tourney. According to the organisers, this tournament will also help in identifying talented hockey players who can further scale up to state level and national level tourneys.

Late reflex action

hoardings, bus shelter displays, pole kiosks, displays on medians, skywalks including flexed banners, flexed buntings, etc, within BBMP limits of the east zone.

The tender has been floated for providing services for the removal of unauthorised/illegal advertisements and hoardings in Shanthi Nagar, Hebbal, Sarvagna Nagar, CV Raman Nagar, Pulikeshi Nagar, and Shivajinagar.

Recently, the BBMP had announced its decision to file criminal cases against those affixing these banners. BBMP chief commissioner Tushar Giri Nath told reporters that Palike had filed 70-100 police complaints against illegal hoardings: he said divisional BBMP officials are authorised to book at least five FIRs, and warned of actions against senior officials in case the issue is not halted.

A senior BBMP official told BM that it was all part of Palike's efforts to curb illegal hoardings in the city. "Removal of flexes, banners and hoardings is an ongoing process. We are maintaining the beautification of the city. Joint commissioner and AEE have been tasked with removal of illegal hoardings. However, the task will be carried out with the help of BBMP engineering division and other departmental staff."

> Civic activists termed exercise a waste of tax payers' money as 'BBMP has failed to address issue of illegal flexes'

Civic activists, meanwhile, termed the exercise a waste of taxpayers' money as 'the BBMP has failed to address the issue of illegal flexes'. "BBMP needs to address the issue of illegal flexes more seriously. All the removed flexes end up in landfills and are a waste of public funds. Palike should stop printing flexes and should force the transition towards cloth-based materials for advertisement media. The civic body should motivate the printers towards making a shift to more biodegradable materials," said Datta Saraf, a civic activist.

While he termed the exercise wasteful, he said Palike is understaffed and needs additional sets of hands. "Due to a shortage of staff, Palike is not even addressing complaints," he said.

As per the Karnataka Open Places (Prevention of Disfigurement) Act, 1981, "whoever by himself or through another person affixes to, or erects, inscribes or exhibits on, any place open to public view any advertisement without the written permission of the local authority having jurisdiction over the such area, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both."

DID YOU KNOW?

Yelahanka is one of the oldest suburbs of Bengaluru. The locality existed before the 12th century. During the reign of Cholas, the place was called Ilaipakka Naadu. Later on, during the Hoysala period, the city was renamed as Elavanka and eventually developed to Yelahanka. Currently, the place is part of north Bengaluru. It is traversed by National Highway 44 and is very near to Kempegowda International Airport. The suburb is known to host several famous retail brands, including RMZ Galleria Mall, Dmart, and Yelahanka Central. It is also popularly known to house the Indian Air Force, which has an Air Force Station and a defense airport located on the highway. The international aero show is held in the area that draws manufacturers from the aerospace and defense industry.

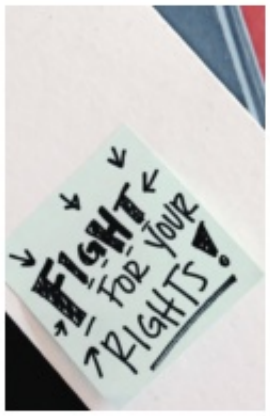
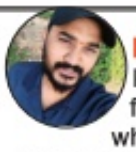
TAPTHECHATTER

where Bengalureans speak their mind

With elections round the corner, tell us the one promise you need a politician to make for you to vote for them.





Peria Swamy, BM Reader
Politicians should be at the ward for at least once a week to know what is happening and have live interaction with people. By doing so people will gain confidence and would trust the politician.

Daisy Sarma, BM Reader
Of late, Bengaluru is facing a lot of problems due to the chaotic traffic parking system. So, I need a promise from a politician to discipline the system for the entire city.

Lakshmi Bheemachar, BM Reader
A politician is the bridge between the government and people. He should be transparent, people friendly, and use his powers to represent and resolve common man's civic needs. Politicians should not make false promises just for votes.

Vishnu Sreenivasan, BM Reader
The best promise that any politician can make is to be fulfill the development work which he/she had promised in their respective manifesto and to clear it before their term completion.

Vivekanand Kher, BM Reader
Usually politicians heavily promise to the public during the elections. I would certainly like a politician to think seriously about the country's growth, which shall solve many pending issues.

Prem Kumar, BM Reader
Politicians should make sure the public are provided with uninterrupted power and water supply, and they should make arrangements for free flow of sewerage so that cleanliness is maintained. I would think about casting my vote in their favour.

Hagadur Road: Choke in smoke

Regular fire causes breathing issues among residents, they urge BBMP to take quick actions

| Shreyashi Mukherjee
c-shreyashi.m@timesgroup.com

TWEETS @BangaloreMIRROR

The residents of Hagadur Road say that a fire has been regularly taking place in their area. They say that the smoke is causing health problems for a number of people and increasing air pollution.

According to them, the fire is being observed behind the government school in the area.

Sanjay Hemant, a resident of the area, said, "We have been noticing the fire for quite some time now and there has been no action taken to stop this. A lot of the people staying in the area have been affected by the smoke."

He added that the area is very close to the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) office. Therefore, the civic body should be quick to take action against these kinds of activities.

Other residents of the area complained about having breathing problems and allergies because of the smoke.

Rashida K, another resident, told Bangalore Mirror that the smoke is causing a lot of problems for them and everyone in the area has been complaining of breathing issues.

"My mother was recently diagnosed with a lung infection and the smoke is further making her health worse. Her coughing has become more frequent and she is having problems breathing. The authorities should take strict action to stop activities that cause so much inconvenience to the people here," she said.

A blaze behind a government school at Hagadur Road

According to Neeraj K, another resident, these days his children are having a lot of sneezing problems because of the smoke.

"We had to get allergy medications to stop them from sneezing so much. I am facing breathing problems as well because of the toxic fumes. The old people are also getting severely affected here," he explained.

Further, the residents mentioned that the smoke has increased the air pollution in the area.

Archana Raj, another resident, said, "Because of the smoke the pollution in the area has increased so much. The entire area looks foggy as it gets covered by smoke. Also when I go out in the evening my eyes start burning. This has become an everyday affair and needs to be looked at immediately."

Meanwhile, a BBMP official told BM that they would try to find out the people behind this and take the necessary steps.

IT'S A GOAL

K'taka's star at Santhosh Trophy, Robin Yadav, on his journey so far and his next stop

| SS Shreekumar
mybangaloremirror@timesgroup.com
TWEETS @BangaloreMIRROR

Remember the name - Robin Yadav. The 22-year-old footballer is on the rise and dreams and desires to don India colours, perform abroad and prove that Indians can also play good football. His exploits in a short span of time portends to great things in future for sure.

Robin Yadav was the toast of Karnataka. The Bengaluru FC footballer who is part of their reserve team, scored the most important goal which earned Karnataka the National football championship for the Santosh Trophy after 54 long years.

It was as Mysore that the State had last won the Santosh Trophy at the Sree Kanteerava Stadium defeating Bengal in the replayed final after the first meeting had ended goalless more than half a century ago. It was in 1968-69 that Mysore won their fourth title. After being rechristened as Karnataka in 1974, the State had advanced to the final only once, that too in 1975-76. But all that changed at the King Fahd International Stadium in Riyadh in the first ever domestic final of Indian football to be played abroad.

And the man who helped Karnataka win a historic trophy, the first as Karnataka, was Robin Yadav.

A confident and attacking defender, Robin is also endowed with a long throw and has good set-piece skills. He produced a wonderful moment with the scores tied at 2-2 as his curling shot went into the net. He was also the one who created the first goal for Karnataka with his long throw which Sunil put home albeit off a deflection.

But the winner, Robin's free-kick, was the talking point. It was his fourth set-piece goal of the tournament. Robin was later adjudged as the "Player of the tournament".

The team landed back in Bengaluru on March 6, two days after making history. Robin was absolutely delighted with the performance of the team and his own contribution. "It was total team effort and full credit to everyone. Each player worked hard as we were determined to bring the Santosh Trophy home. Winning it after such a long time is a special feeling. I am happy we have ended the longing to win it," said Robin.

But how did he get into football in the first place? "I used to go with my brother Rumit Kumar to watch him play near our house in Soneru in Kolkata. One day I asked him if I could also play. I played and my brother was happy with my game. He told me to continue to play and said your future is in football," said Robin.

"I came under my first coach Malai Rudra in school (Madhyamgram School) and I was selected for the Subroto Mukherjee Cup. Our team did well and we entered the final rounds. It was played in Punjab and we defeated all teams scoring about 20 goals. It was during this tournament that coach Naushad Moosa Sir spotted me and asked me to go for trials for the Bengaluru FC Junior team. I came and participated and was selected by Bengaluru FC," added Robin.

"I played for Karnataka in the qualifying rounds and we entered the semi-finals as well this year. We were very confident of winning as I told you. We eventually won it in Riyadh and that is the happiest moment of my life," he added.

Robin's free-kick was the match-winner against Meghalaya. "Yes, I practice free-kicks during practice. I will try to perfect them so that I can be useful during a match."

Which position does he excel in? "Well, I always like to play attacking football. My preference is to play as an attacking midfielder or as a winger. But my coaches Ravi Babu Sir and Kenneth Sir utilised me as a defender. I am at home there too and will always give my best for the team," he explained.

Well, who are his idols? "At the International level, Cristiano Ronaldo is my favourite player. In Indian football, I like to watch Avinash Beke and Lenny Rodrigues play."

And what are his future plans? "My ambition is to work hard and continue to play for whichever team I am in. I want to remain humble no matter what I achieve. But I want to represent my country, play abroad and prove to everyone that Indians can also play good football. I am working towards that and will achieve it by the grace of God," signed off the genial and sincere Robin Yadav.

"He is a talented boy and works hard. I am sure he has a bright future. With his commitment and desire, he is bound to do well. He has a very bright future," said M. Satyanarayana, the KSFA Secretary.

Don't forget - Robin Yadav.

> "My goal is to work hard and play for my team. I want to remain humble no matter what I achieve. I want to represent my country, play abroad and prove to everyone that Indians can also play good football

It's all about variety!

These recipes are from different parts of the country and add colour to an everyday meal

BENGALI CHINGRI MALAI CURRY

Prep Time: 10 mins
Cooking Time: 25
Serves 4

INGREDIENTS

- 400 gram prawns
- 3 tbsp mustard oil
- 2 tbsp onion paste
- 1tsp garlic paste
- 1/2 tbsp whole cumin
- 1 tbsp ginger paste
- 2 tsp cumin powder
- 1 tsp chili powder
- 1 tsp turmeric powder
- 1tsp salt
- 2 tsp sugar
- 1 tsp garam masala
- 1 1/4 cup coconut milk
- 2 tsp ghee

METHOD

- Marinate the prawns in turmeric and little salt, Heat mustard oil in a pan and add sugar and whole cumin, Add ginger garlic paste, cumin powder, red chilli powder and turmeric powder and sauté, then add tomato puree, now add the prawns and slit green chilies and stir for few minutes. Add the coconut milk, cook for few more minutes, and then add salt. In the end sprinkle garam masala and ghee on top and serve with rice.

JAIPURI GATTE AUR MATAR KA PULAO

INGREDIENTS

For the gatte

- 1 1/2 cups bengal gram flour
- 1 1/2 tsp chilli • 1 tsp fennel seeds
- 1 tsp carom seeds • 1 1/2 tbsp curd
- 2 pinches baking soda
- 5 tsp oil • salt to taste
- oil for deep-frying

For the pulao

- 3 cups cooked long grain rice
- ½ cup green peas
- 1 tbsp oil • 3 cardamoms
- 2 cloves • 1/2 tsp cumin seeds
- 1/2 tsp mustard seeds
- 1/4 tsp asafoetida
- 1/2 cup deep-fried sliced onions
- 1 tsp chilli powder
- 1/4 tsp turmeric powder
- 1/2 tsp masala, salt to taste

Prep Time: 20 mins
Cooking Time: 15
Serves 4

METHOD

Gattas

- Combine all the ingredients for the gattas in a deep bowl and knead into a stiff dough using approx. 2 tbsp of water. Divide the dough into 3 equal portions and shape each portion into a long cylindrical roll. Place them on a greased steamer plate and steam them in a steamer for 7 minutes. Cool slightly, cut the gattas into equal pieces and keep aside. Heat the oil in a kadhai, deep-fry the gatta pieces till they turn light brown in color from all the sides and keep aside.

Pulao

- Heat the oil in a deep non-stick pan, add the cardamom, cloves, cumin seeds, mustard seeds and asafoetida and sauté on a medium flame for 30 seconds. Add the prepared paste and sauté on a medium flame for 2 minutes. Add the turmeric powder, chili powder and graham masala, mix well and cook on a medium flame for 1 minute. Add the cooked rice, deep-fried gattas, and salt, mix well and cook on a medium flame for 2 minutes, while stirring occasionally. Add the deep-fried onions and mix well. Serve immediately garnished with coriander.
- Blend with 2 tbsps of water
- 4 garlic cloves • 1/2 tbsp roughly chopped green chilies
- 1 tsp roughly chopped ginger
- 1/2 cup sliced onions

Garnish

- 2 tbsp finely chopped coriander

MASALEDAR JALANDHARI KATHAL KI SUBZI

INGREDIENTS

- 2 cups raw jackfruit cubes,
- 1/4 tsp turmeric powder
- 3 tbsp oil
- salt to taste
- 1 small stick cinnamon
- 4 cloves
- 3 bay leaves
- 1 cup sliced onions
- 1 tbsp chopped ginger
- 1 tbsp chopped garlic
- 1 cup chopped tomatoes
- 2 tsp coriander powder
- 1 tsp cumin powder
- 1 1/2 tsp chilli powder
- 1 tsp ghee
- 1tsp garam masala for the garnish
- 2 tbsp chopped coriander powder

Prep Time: 20 mins
Cooking Time: 27
Serves 4

METHOD

- Combine the jackfruit with salt, turmeric, oil and boil. Put remaining oil in a wok, first add dry spices then onion, tomato, ginger, garlic and add all the masalas. Add boiled jackfruit to make a delicious curry, serve hot with rice.

1 I never have lubrication even if I am turned on. It hurts even when I use lube while entry. Gynaec has confirmed it is not vaginismus.
It sounds like you may have a condition called vaginal dryness, which can cause discomfort or pain during sexual activity. It is good that you have already seen a gynaecologist and ruled out vaginismus. There are several potential causes of vaginal dryness like hormonal imbalances, certain medications, and menopause. I would recommend consulting a doctor and discussing treatment options.

2 Had protected sex and didn't ejaculate in vagina but my partner is 3 days late on her periods. Is there anything to worry?
Delayed or irregular periods need not always be due to pregnancy. Physical factors like extreme weight loss or gain, menopause, changes in hormones and or birth control methods or psychological factors like stress can cause a delay. Medical conditions like polycystic ovary syndrome (PCOS), thyroid disorders can be a reason for irregular periods. If you are anxious, please take an at home pregnancy test 7-10 days after your missed period & consult with a gynaecologist.

The numbers in the grey squares refer to the sums of the digits that you must fill into the empty spaces directly below or to the right of the grey square containing the number. For instance, in the given example, the 3 boxes horizontally next to 15 must contain 3 digits that add up to 15, whereas for 9, it is the 2 boxes placed vertically under it that must add up to 9. No zeros are used here, only the digits 1 through 9.

Note: A digit cannot appear more than once in any particular digit combination. For instance, in the example, we cannot have the combination of 4+7+4 for 15.

Rules

» Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A). » Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B). » Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines. » You can't draw lines around zeros. » Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

How to begin:

Example (Fig A) – Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a dead-end (Fig B)

Priyanka reveals this is the first time in her career that she has got equal pay

Actress Priyanka Chopra Jonas, who is gearing up for the release of her upcoming spy-action thriller series 'Citadel', has shared that for the first time in her 22 years' career, she got equal pay with 'Citadel'.

Recently at the inauguration of the South by Southwest Film Festival, the actress spoke with Amazon Studios head Jennifer Salke and shared her version with a bit of scepticism. "I might get into trouble for (saying this), depends on who's watching," she said, quoted by The Hollywood Reporter. "I've been working in the entertainment industry for now 22 years, and I have done about almost 70-plus features and two TV shows."

She continued: "But when I did Citadel, it was the first time in my career that I had pay parity. I'm laughing about this, but it's kind of nuts, I put in the same amount of investment and work, but I get paid much less. But the ease in which Amazon Studios said, 'That's what you deserve, you are co-leads, that's just fair,' and I was like, 'You're right, it's fair'."

'Citadel' is Prime Video's upcoming big-budget, globe-trotting spy thriller produced by the Russo Brothers and showrunner David Weil, and stars Richard Madden along with Priyanka.

"And I wonder: Did that happen because there are very few female decision-makers in Hollywood? Would that have been a different conversation if a woman didn't make that decision? Those are not conversations that happened very easily," the actress concluded.

Millie ready to say bye to 'Stranger Things'

Stranger Things' actress Millie Bobby Brown is ready to leave Hawkins in the rearview.

The Emmy Award nominee, 19, admitted that she's "very ready" to say goodbye to her 'Stranger Things' role, reports People magazine.

She recently spoke about preparing to film the fifth and final season of Netflix's nostalgia-driven sci-fi series, which premiered in 2016.

"I'm definitely ready to wrap up. I feel like there's a lot of the story that's been told now," she explained. "It's been in our lives for a very long time. But I'm very ready to say goodbye to this chapter of my life, and open new ones up."

She further said, quoted by People: "I'm able to create stories myself that are important to me and focus on the bigger picture. But I'm really grateful (for the show)."

Brown found her breakout role on 'Stranger Things' when she was 12, playing telekinetic youth Eleven, who escapes a government testing facility where researchers used her in a portal to an alternate dimension. —IANS

Strike a pose

Emily in Paris' star Lucien Laviscount posed for a picture with Indian star NTR Jr, whose song 'Naatu Naatu' has been nominated at the 95th Oscar Awards.

NTR Jr is currently in the US to attend the 95th Academy Awards where his epic period action drama RRR's song Naatu Naatu is nominated in the Best Original Song category. Laviscount, ran into the Indian star at a cafe in Beverly Hills and he talked about 'RRR' and NTR's tiger sequence. On the meeting between the two, a source said: "Lucien recognised NTR instantly from RRR and came to greet him and congratulate him on his success of RRR. They later even chatted about the film and Lucien was very keen on knowing how NTR shot the interval sequence with the animals and could not stop praising NTR's performance."

'Naatu Naatu' has been a flavour of the award season. It has already won a Golden Globe and a Critics Choice Award this year. At the Oscars, the song is contending against tracks by Lady Gaga and Rihanna.
